

ALLEGRA'S BUMBLING CROSSWORD ACTIVITY

ACROSS

5. A bumblebee pollinated, purple, egg-shaped fruit, which you might think is a vegetable.
8. It would be much harder to have a _____ diet without the fruits and vegetables bumblebees pollinate.
9. A single female bee in a colony that can produce young bees which are usually looked after by other female worker bees.
10. By going from flower to flower, bumblebees are _____ pollen.
11. A food source for bumblebees which is produced by flowers.
12. The queen bee will lay _____ to grow her colony.
14. Bumblebees will pollinate a flower during what stage of its life cycle.
15. Dust like powder produced by flowers, which can pollinate a flower.

DOWN

1. To be able to convert light from the sun into energy, plants will grow _____.
2. To help reach our 5 a day, we need to be eating fruits and _____.
3. The act of transferring pollen grains from a male anther to the female stigma is called _____.
4. The buzz or hum that bumblebees make can be described as a _____.
6. Bumblebees are a keystone species, meaning they are _____ for our ecosystem.
7. A bee pollinated, red, small, juicy fruit that has small brown seeds on its surface.
13. The _____ bees are female but are not capable of reproducing. They do all the work in the hive.

HOW MANY TYPES OF BUMBLEBEE
SPECIES ARE THERE IN THE UK?

THIS CROSS WORD INCLUDES
CURRICULUM LINKS TO KS2